PLANNING COMMISSIONRESOLUTION

New Delhi, the 24th April 1959

(Advisory Committee on Irrigation, Flood Control and Power Projects).

No. NR-4(5)/59.—In accordance with the emphasis laid in the Plan on the need for following a national policy for the development of Irrigation and Power, an Advisory Committee on Irrigation and Power Projects was formed in February, 1954 (vide Resolution No. PC(V)/IV(5)/54, dated February 20, 1954) for examining and making suitable recommendations to the Planning Commission on the various Irrigation and Power Projects proposed for inclusion in the Second Five Year Plan. The Committee was subsequently reconstituted in July, 1956 (vide Resolution No. PC(V)/IV(5)/56, dated July 30, 1956) as it was found that detailed project reports were not received for a large number of the schemes included in the Second Plan. The Committee whose term expires on 30th July, 1959, is examining Irrigation & Power Projects included in the Second Plan.

2 It is now proposed to widen the functions of the Advisory Committee by including within its purview—

- (i) flood control projects for the Second and Third Five Year Plans; and
- (ii) all irrigation and power projects for the Third Five Year Plan.

This opportunity is also being taken to strengthen it by the appointment of additional members.

3. The functions of the Committee will be to examine Irrigation Power, Flood Control and other river valley projects proposed by the State and the Central Governments and other authorities, and to satisfy itself that:

- (i) the schemes have been prepared after detailed investigations;
- (ii) the schemes are technically sound and the estimates are complete and correct; and
- (iii) the financial forecasts and estimates of benefits to be derived are based on accurate data and are reliable.

and on the basis of such examination to advise the Planning Commission on the merits of individual projects for inclusion in the Plan.

4 The Committee will consist of the following.—

1. Deputy Minister for Irrigation & Power—Chairman
2. Secretary, Ministry of Irrigation and Power—Vice Chairman.

Members

3. Chairman, Central Water & Power Commission
4. Adviser (Irrigation & Power) Planning Commission.
5. Member (Planning and Investigations) Water Wing, Central Water & Power Commission.
6. Member (Power Wing), Central Water & Power Commission.
7. Financial Adviser, Ministry of Irrigation & Power.
8. Chief Engineer, Floods, (Planning & Design), Central Water & Power Commission.
9. & 10. Consultants in the Ministry of Irrigation & Power
11. & 12. Engineers not in regular service of any Government in India.

Adviser (Irrigation & Power), Planning Commission, will also act as the Secretary to the Committee. Directors of Technical Examination in the Central Water & Power Commission (Water, Flood and Power Wings) will act as Additional Secretaries

5. The Committee will determine the procedure for receiving schemes from Central and State Governments and other authorities and for their examination, including the setting up of subcommittees, etc. The Committee may, whenever necessary, request the representatives of the State Governments to participate in discussions relating to projects sponsored by them.

6. The term of the Committee will extend upto March 31st, 1961.

ORDER

Ordered that a copy of this Resolution be communicated to all State Governments, all Chief Ministers of States, all Ministries of the Government of India, the Prime Minister's Secretariat, the Private and Military Secretaries to the President and heads of all Indian Missions abroad.

Ordered also that a copy be published in the Gazette of India.
